

MECC DLCC Update

Dr. Ken Pisel
DLCC Chair

DLCC Meeting

- Met 12-13 September at JFSC
- Issues
 - Low-hanging fruit
 - Business practices
 - CAC access
 - Business meeting

Low-Hanging Fruit

- Service Capabilities
 - Lead agent
 - 1-2 hour lesson
 - Additional content available
 - Develop outline & format over next 6 months
- Theory & Nature of War
 - Share assets
- Presentations and Guest Speakers
 - Share as assets

Business Practices

- DODI 1322.26 mandates SCORM
 - Does not provide specific direction
- MECC DLCC is a community of practice
- Reviewed and established standard practices across community
 - 16 specific issues
 - Commonality will increase potential for reuse
- Part of a continuous process

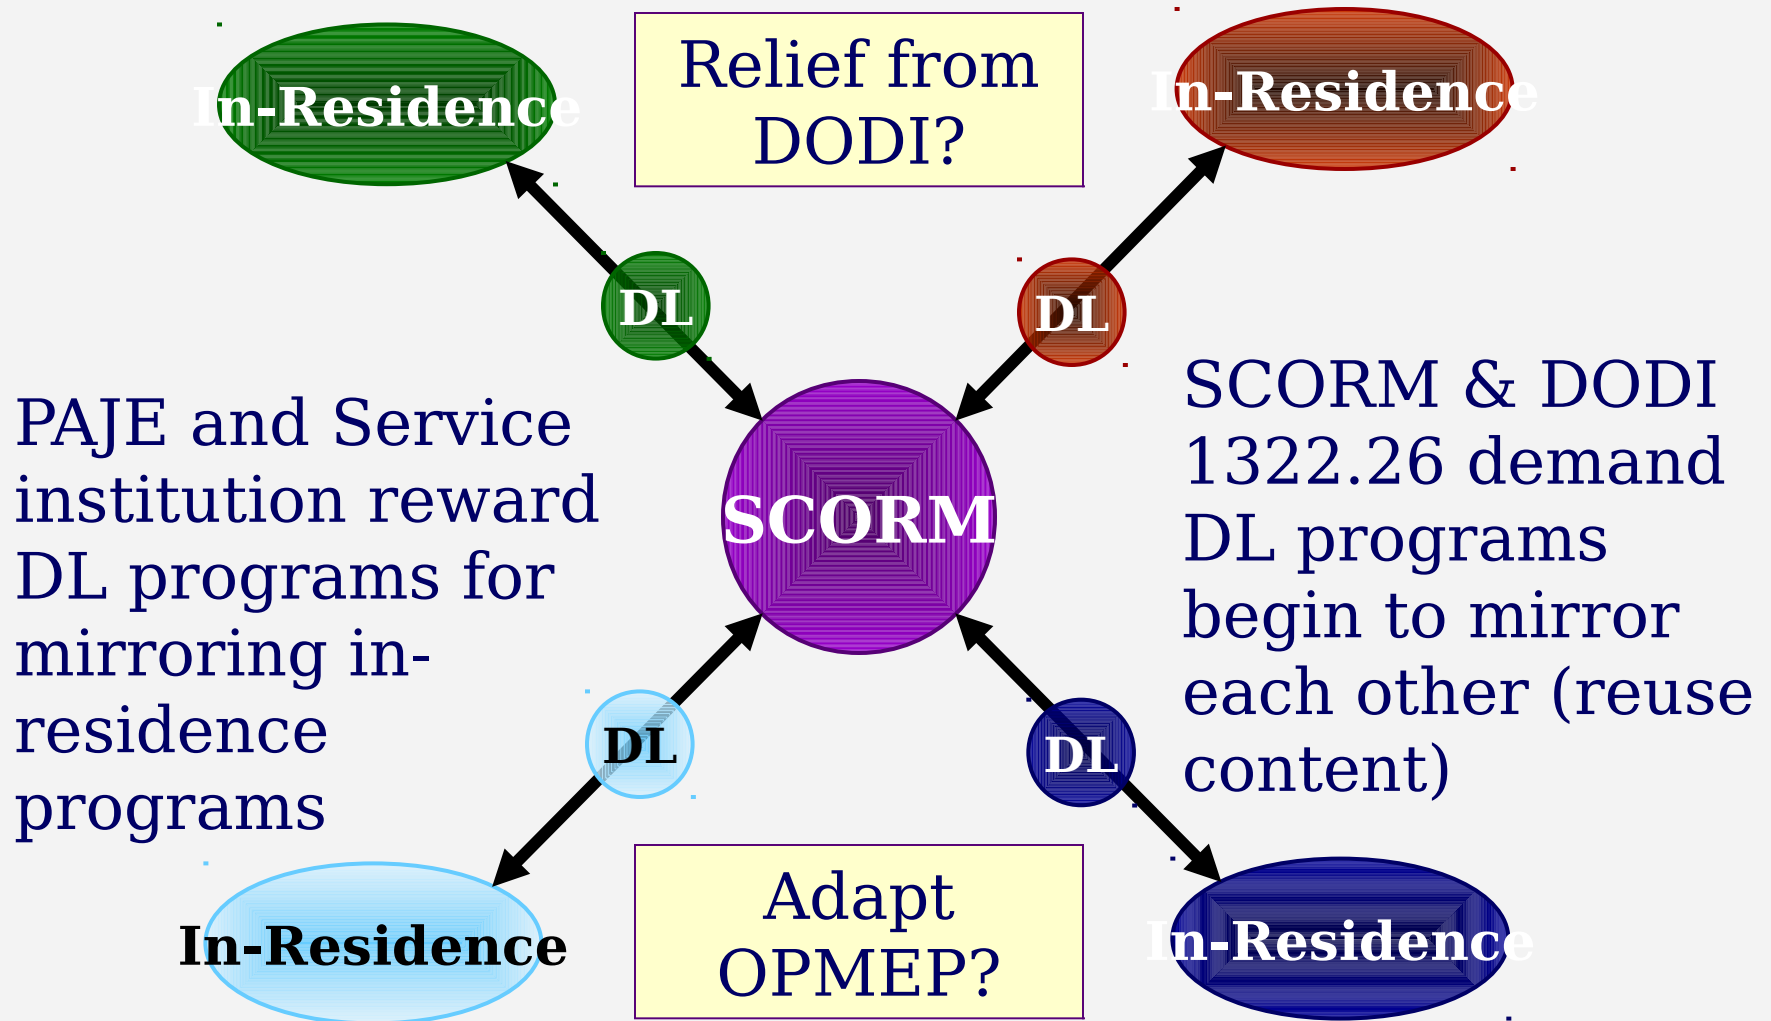

CAC Access

- DOD policy is moving to restricting access to systems – CAC required
 - Should not be an issue for in-residence programs
 - Significant issue for DL programs
 - Almost no DL students have CAC reader at home
 - Cost $30 - $40 each
- Unable to get briefer on this issue
 - Full magnitude of issue is unclear

Spring 2007 DLCC Conference

- Topic: Culture & Language via DL
- Location: NPS
 - Leverage proximity of DLI
- Business meeting on 3rd day
 - Review Service Capabilities lesson progress
 - Review business rules
 - CAC issue
 - Review OPMEP
